'The Longest Kiss' Documentary screening

PROMENA Foundation hosted its fourth documentary screening on the 8th of July 2017. "The Longest Kiss" is a documentary that reflects upon the Sudanese referendum that led to the separation of the country into two. Many thanks to our speakers Ms. Abeer Abazeed from Leiden University/ University of Caire / Egypt, and Mr. Shariff Tabbaa from the International Institute of Social Studies / Erasmus University Rotterdam, as well as the attendants. The discussion following the screening was very enlightening.

ProMena invites the WE-organisation for cooperation

PROMENA Foundation is happy to be contacted by the WE Organization. WE is a young innovative, socially conscious and action-oriented initiative founded by two Syrian refugees, Ms. Razan Damlakhi and Mr. Adel AlBaghdadi. It aims to develop various projects targeting different segments of the society in order to combat xenophobia. PROMENA Foundation and WE will cooperate for Autumn 2017 events. Stay tuned.

Setting art to music: Gabriel Yared

By Emily Boulter, our staff writer from University of Toronto

There are few composers in the film industry who have produced more moving and memorable scores than Gabriel Yared. While not a household name, this Franco-Lebanese composer and producer has written music for film classics such as the English Patient, Betty Blue and The Talented Mr. Ripley. What separates his work from other composers is his ability to produce music for a film which makes it impossible to imagine without its evocative soundtrack. It is his gift of transporting the listener and the viewer to other times in history and distant places.
